

ACCEPTABLE USE POLICY

This Acceptable Use Policy ("AUP") specifies the actions prohibited by Universal CDN. Universal CDN is a Limited Liability Company based at Delaware, USA (hereinafter referred to as "UCDN"). This AUP specifies prohibited user behavior of UCDN's services. UCDN reserves the right to modify this AUP at any time by posting an updated version of this documents at UCDN's website.

Illegal Use

UCDN's CDN services may be used only for lawful purposes. Transmission, distribution or storage of any material in violation of any applicable law or regulation is prohibited. This includes, without limitation, material protected by copyright, trademark, trade secret or other intellectual property right used without proper authorization, and material that is obscene, defamatory, constitutes an illegal threat, or violates export control laws.

Adult Content

UCDN allows "adult content" providers to use UCDN's services. There are no restrictions on what "adult content" providers may serve, however all content must be legal under the laws of the United States of America and each of the 50 States of the Union, and "adult content" providers must abide by all other Terms of Service at all times.

Malicious or Unauthorized Hacking

Violations of system or network security are strictly prohibited, and in addition to immediate account suspension and termination without notice, may result in criminal and civil liability. UCDN will investigate incidents involving such violations and may involve and will cooperate with law enforcement if a criminal violation is suspected. Examples of system or network security violations include, but are not limited to, the following: Unauthorized access to or use of data, systems or networks, including any attempt to probe, scan or test the vulnerability of a system or network or to breach security or authentication measures without express authorization of the owner of the system and network. Unauthorized monitoring of data or traffic on any network or system without express authorization of the owner of the system and network. Interference with service to any user, host or network including, without limitation, mail-bombing, flooding, deliberate attempts to overload a system and broadcast attacks. Forging of any TCP-IP packet header or any part of the header information in an email or a newsgroup posting.

Abuse

Complaints regarding suspected Illegal Use or System or Network Security issues should be sent to abuse@ucdn.com

Digital Millennium Copyright Act (“DMCA”) Policy/Copyright Infringement Notification

To file a copyright infringement notification with UCDN, you will need to send a written communication that includes substantially the following (please consult your legal counsel or see Section 512(c)(3) of the DMCA to confirm these requirements):

1. A physical or electronic signature of a person authorized to act on behalf of the owner of an exclusive right that is allegedly infringed.
2. Identification of the copyrighted work claimed to have been infringed, or, if multiple copyrighted works at a single online site are covered by a single notification, a representative list of such works at that site.
3. Identification of the material that is claimed to be infringing or to be the subject of infringing activity and that is to be removed or access to which is to be disabled, and information reasonably sufficient to permit the service provider to locate the material. Providing URLs in the body of an email is the best way to help us locate content quickly.
4. Information reasonably sufficient to permit the service provider to contact the complaining party, such as an address, telephone number, and, if available, an electronic mail address at which the complaining party may be contacted.
5. A statement that the complaining party has a good faith belief that use of the material in the manner complained of is not authorized by the copyright owner, its agent, or the law.
6. A statement that the information in the notification is accurate, and under penalty of perjury, that the complaining party is authorized to act on behalf of the owner of an exclusive right that is allegedly infringed.
7. To expedite our ability to process your request, such written notice should be sent to abuse.ucdn.com

In accordance with the DMCA, UCDN will respond in a reasonable time frame to claims of copyright infringement committed by someone using UCDN service that are reported to us using a proper DMCA Notice. Upon receipt of Notice as described above, UCDN will take whatever action, in its sole discretion, it deems appropriate, including removal of the challenged use from the Services and/or termination of the UCDN user's account.
